

Newsletter No. 5

Pride in ourselves, pride in our school, pride in our community.

Friday 11th October

YEAR 1

This week in art, Year 1 practised observational drawing. They had an object in front of them and they sketched and coloured it, trying to add in texture to make it look realistic.

RECEPTION

The children in Reception are thrilled with this amazing new outdoor kitchen skilfully made for us by our super talented Site Agent, Mr Clifton. Thank you so much to Mr Clifton!

SCHOOL DISPLAYS

Our hall is currently adorned with beautiful new displays showcasing the incredible work of our students. We are very proud of both our students and staff members for all the hard work they have put in to making such inspiring displays.

MESSAGE FROM THE KITCHEN

Children who are in Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 who would like to opt in to government funded free school meals for next term, please let the kitchen know via email,

GMA-office@bestacademies.org.uk

Children who are having government free meals need to continue having them for the whole term and cannot swap between dinners and packed lunches due to the way funding is allocated. Thank you for your co-operation.

Golden Book

Children are nominated by Teaching Assistants and Teachers for a Principal's award which is entered in the Golden Book. The award can be for living one of our Values or special achievement. Sporting awards/achievements gained through a regular commitment to a club or group are also celebrated.

Ash	Flo for her increased confidence when sharing ideas, particularly in maths.
Oak	Tobias for his increased confidence and coming into school with a big smile on his face.
Beech	Kaiden for his wonderful writing as part of the Cloudspotter unit. Kaiden thought of an excellent plan to get rid of Scruffy Dog and explained it clearly using First, Then and Next sentences.
Elm	Max for working hard in maths. Max showed good understanding of a part-whole model and was able to use this to help him write number sentences. Also, Max has been writing some creative sentences in English this week. Well done Max, we are so proud of you!
Willow	George for his concentration and effort in maths, particularly in his maths fluency.
Maple	Quinn for always living the school values. Quinn is always ready to learn, she shows respect and compassion to those around her and she takes pride in everything she does.
Chestnut	Reuben for such an excellent and positive start to Year 3, trying his very best in everything he does.
Sycamore	Pixie-Lilly for the compassion she shows her classmates and her understanding and tolerance of others.
Birch	Oliver M for his dedication to learning, always taking on extra challenges both at home and in the classroom.
Hazel	Bahir for the recognition from a number of teachers for his determination and dedication he is showing in his learning.

OTHER AWARDS TO MENTION

- * Ioli in Chestnut was awarded a trophy in rugby.
- * Bobby in Chestnut received the Man of the Match trophy after scoring one goal and getting two assists playing for Stotfold Amber's.
