

Year 4 Homework

Due back: Wednesday 30th January

We would like you to show us what you know about factors and multiples.

You can present your work in a range of different ways.

You could create a poster, leaflet, information sheet, something on the computer, film yourself teaching a lesson... or something else!